

Police taking action: A child is taken out of its hiding place by Ghanaian police.

Facts:

Anas Arameyas Anas is an undercover investigative journalist for the Ghanaian newspaper The Crusading Guide. He will present some of his work at GIJC, accompanied by videos and stills.

Child Prostitution: The Worst Forms of Child Labour Convention, of the International Labor Organization (ILO) provides that the use, procuring or offering of a child for prostitution is one of the worst forms of child labour.

This convention, adopted in 1999, provides that countries that had ratified it must eliminate the practice urgently. It enjoys the fastest pace of ratifications in the ILO's history since 1919. *The prostitution of children is seen as forming part of the commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC), and is sometimes connected to the trafficking of children for sexual purposes, and to child pornography. Child sex tourism also falls within the category of the prostitution of children.
